Knitting with Resilience Walcha

A workshop with Sam Longmore from Ohh Bulldust

JOIN US FOR A TIME OF SELF-CARE, CONNECTION, AND CREATIVITY!

Led by Sam, who knits with just one hand, these workshops teach about the qualities and origins of merino wool, offer group practice in knitting techniques, and provide insights on overcoming personal challenges.

The workshops focus on patience, creativity, and resilience, sharing Sam's journey of adapting to injuries. Participants will enjoy making beautiful items, eating, drinking, and sharing stories in a supportive and relaxed environment.
