

Soil Health & Your Wealth

Profit Building with Minerals, Microbes & Humus

WITH GRAEME SAIT

FROM NUTRI-TECH SOLUTIONS

Graeme Sait is coming to Ben Lomond to deliver a half-day session on the practical “how to” of building soil health and farm profitability, hosted by the Guyra Landcare Network.

Graeme’s popular workshops have drawn strong interest across the region.

This shorter session is a great opportunity to experience his insights for the first time or to revisit the principles with fresh perspective.

This half-day workshop distills highlights from Graeme’s renowned 5-day Nutrition Farming program.

Expect the latest approaches to improving soil health, boosting productivity and profitability, and enhancing food nutrition, along with practical demonstrations and discussion.
